B O S T O N, July 18.

The inhabitants of Charles-Town, South-Carolina, have fent about two hundred tierces of rice for the poor of this town, who are sufferers by the Boston port but, which arrived at alem last Monday.

We have accounts from all parts of this and the neighbouring provinces, of the very generous provision that our brethren are making for the poor of this distressed town.

Capt. William Davis, arrived at Plymouth from St. Ubes, in a fnort paffage, informs, that advice was received there of the death of the French king, and also of the king of Prussia; and that a French seet had failed from Brest to assist the Turks against the Russians.

Friday last a number of public spirited gentlemen at Marblehead, raised supscriptions for 207 quintals of cod sish, about 50 jars of oyl, and £. 40 lawful in specie, for the use of the industrious poor of this town at this critical conjuncture of our public affairs, which is to be forwarded to-morrow, if the weather permits.

By accounts from the north & fouth, east and west of this province—the non consumption agreement is come into with scarce a dissentient in many towns.

Large orders for fall goods, have been countermand## ed, occasioned by the non consumptive agreeements. N E W - Y O R K, July 25.

On Monday evening the 11th inflant, departed this life, at Johnson-Hall. in his 60th year, to the inexpressible concern of his family, and the infinite loss of the public, particularly at this critical juncture, the hon. ir William Johnson, bart. his majesty's superintendant of Indian affairs, and one of the oldest council of this province: he had long laboured under a complication of diforders, the consequences of his former fatigues and fevere fervices, in defence of the country in general, and this province in particular. Still persisting in the exertion of all his faculties, and at the expence of health, e se, and domestic concerns, discharging the laborious duties of a most troublesome and difficult department, he, though much indisposed, attended and transacted business with the fix nations, who came lately to Johnson-Hall, on account of the murders committed by some of the frontier inhabitants of Virginia. The fatigue and hurry of spirits occasion oned by the difficulties he found in accommodating these affairs, at last obliged him to retire to his room, where he was immediately feized with a violent attack, which carried him off in an hour's time. To characters fo well known particulars are needless; the impartial p-blic well know and enjoy the fruits of his diftinguished fervices, whilst crowds have experienced his bene-volence and private bounty; and his united talents as a defender and improver of this country, will ever preserve his name amongst the most distinguished perionages of the age he lived in.

Capt. Maitland of the ship Magna-Charta, has brought over a quantity of tea to Charles-Town, South-Carolina; but as the persons to whom it was configned, resused to receive it, the captain, we are informed, proposes to carry it back with him to London. From the same place we are informed, that a second present of rice from the gentlemen of that province, to the indigent sufferers at Boston, is preparing to be sent to that port.

Thursday last three transports arrived here from Boston; they are now taking in ordnance, and a proportion of military stores, among which are 500 barrels of gun-powder; and we hear the royal Welch Fuzileers, now here, are to embark this week on board the said transports, with a detachment of the train of artillery, and to sail directly for Boston.

PHILADELPHIA, July 25.

At a provincial meeting of deputies schosen by the several counties in Pennsylvania; beta attributed phia, July 15, 1774, and continued by adjournments from day to day, THOMAS WILLING was chosen chairman,

CHARLES THOMSON, Clerk.

Agreed that, in case of any difference in sentiment, the question be determited by the deputies voting by counties.

The letters from Boston of the 13th of May were then read, and a short account given of the steps taken in consequence thereof, and the measures now pursuing in this and the neighbouring provinces; after which the following resolves were passed.—

Unan. I. THAT we acknowledge ourselves and the inhabitants of this province, liege subjects of his majesty king George the third, to whom they and we owe and will bear true and faithful allemance.

Unan. II. That as the idea of an unconfitutional independance on the parent state is utterly abhorrent to our principles, we view the unhappy differences between Great-Britain and the colonies with the deepelt distress and anxiety of mind, as fruitless to her, grievous to us, and destructive of the best interests of both.

Unan. III. I hat it is therefore our ardent defire, that our antient harmony with the mother country should be restored, and a perpetual love and union sub-sist between us, on the principles of the constitution, and an interchange of good offices, without the least infraction of our mutual rights.

Unan. IV. That the inhabitants of these colonies are entitled to the same rights and liberties within these colonics, that the subjects born in England are entitled to within that realm.

Unan. V. That the power assumed by the parliament of Great-Britain to bind the people of these colonies, by statutes, "IN ALL CASES WHATSOEVER," is unconstitutional; and therefore the source of these unhappy differences.

Unan. VI. That the act of parliament for shutting up the port of Boston is unconstitutional; oppressive to the inhabitants of that town; dangerous to the liberties of the British colonies; and therefore, that we consider our brethren at Boston as suffering in the common cause of these colonies.

Unan. VII. That the bill for altering the administration of justice in certain criminal cases within the province of Massachusetts-Bay, if passed into an act of parliament, will be as unconstitutional, oppressive and dangerous as the act abovementioned.

Unan. VIII. That the bill for changing the constitution of the province of Massachusetts-Bay, established by charter, and enjoyed since the grant of that charter, if passed into an act of parliament, will be unconstitutional and dangerous in its consequences to the American colonies.

Unan. IX. That there is an absolute necessity, that a congress of deputies from the several colonies be immediately assembled, to consult together, and form a general plan of conduct to be observed by all the colonies, for the purposes of procuring relief for our suffering brethren, obtaining redress of our grievances, preventing suture differitions, firmly establishing our rights, and restoring harmony between Great-Britain and her colonies on a constitutional foundation.

Unan. X. That, although a suspension of the commerce of this large trading province, with Great Britain, would greatly distress multitudes of our industrious inhabitants, yet that sacrifice and a much greater we are ready to offer for the preservation of our liberties; but, in tenderness to the people of Great-Bruain, as well as of this country, and in hopes that our just remonstrances will at length reach the ears of our gracious sovereign, and be no longer treated with contempt by any of our tellow subjects in England, it is our earnest desire that the congress should first try the gentler mode of stating our grievances, and making a firm and decent claim of redress.

X1. Refolved by a great majority, That yet notwithftanding, as an unanimity of councils and measures is inditpentiably necessary for the common welfare, if the congress shall judge agreements of non importation and non-exportation expedient, the people of this province will join with the other principal and neighbouring colonies, in such an association of non-importation from and non-exportation to Great-Britain, as shall be agreed on at the congress.

XII. Refolved, by a majority, That if any proceedings of the parliament, of which notice shall be received on this continent, before or at the general congress, shall render it necessary in the opinion of that congress, for the colonies to take further steps than are mentioned in the eleventh resolve; in such case, the inhabitants of this province shall adopt such farther steps, and do all in their power to carry them into execution.

Unan. XIII. That the venders of merchandise of every kind within this province, ought not to take advantage of the resolves relating to non importation in this province or elsewhere; but that they ought to sell their merchandise, which they now have or may hereafter import, at the same rates they have been accustomed to do within three months last past.

Unan. XIV. That the people of this province will break off all trade, commerce and dealing, and will have no trade, commerce or dealing of any kind with any colony on this continent, or with any city or town in such colony, or with any individual in any such colony, city or town, which shall refuse, deeline or neglect to adopt and carry into execution, such general plan as shall be agreed to in congress.

Unan. XV. That it is the duty of every member of this committee to promote, as much as he can, the subscription set on soot in the several counties of this province, for the relief of the distressed inhabitants of Bollon.

Unan. XVI. That this committee give instructions on the present situation of public affairs to their representatives, who are to meet next week in assembly, and request them to appoint a proper number of persons to attend a congress of deputies from the several colonies, at such time and place as may be agreed on, to effect one general plan of conduct, for attaining the great and-important ends-mentioned in the ninth resolve.

That John Dickinson, Dr. William Smith, Joseph Reed, John Kidd, Elisha Price, William Atlee, James Smith, James Willson, Daniel Broadhead, John Okely, and William Scull, be appointed to prepare and bring in a draught of instructions.
